Term Fees - How does it work?

As a not-for-profit, community-based organisation, we work hard to keep our class fees affordable and accessible. Fees cover tutor payments, utilities, room hire, and a myriad of other program costs.

Enrolling for a Term

When you register for a course, you're securing your place for the term. To help us confirm classes and support our tutors, we kindly ask that term fees are paid in full during the first week of term. Precedence is given to those who pay by the term in classes that are at capacity. eg. classes with a waitlist.

Payment Options

You're welcome to pay in person at 11–13 Breed Street, Traralgon (card or cash), or by card over the phone.

Paying for the term upfront offers you the best value of around 15% savings compared to casual attendance paying by weekly.

Attendance & Cancellations

We understand life can be unpredictable, but once enrolled, fees for the term are payable whether or not you attend every session. If a tutor is unavailable, we offer a credit on your next term fees.

Public Holidays - Term 1 - Labour Day 9th March and Good Friday 6th April

Pro-rata amount for classes that fall on a public holiday will be only be charged for an 9 week term, rather than 10 in Term 1.

Workshops

One-off workshop fees are due in full before the event. Your place will be confirmed once payment has been received

Memberships

We welcome membership to TNLH. Members of The House. $2 per year.

Popular Programs

Some courses and workshops do fill quickly, so please check with us to confirm your booking.

If you have any questions or need to discuss payment options, our friendly office staff and volunteers are always happy to help.

Waitlist Management

Current participants are given first option to re-enrol, and any remaining places are then offered to those on our waitlists. We do our best to make sure everyone in our community has the chance to join in where they can.

Term 1 = 10 Weeks * Cost per term = $130 ($13 per class)

Cost per week for casual attendance = $15 per class

Some class prices differ due to our funding or private tutors hiring our space to teach this includes Auslan, Recipe for Success, Digital Essentials.
